

MARY BASILICA . F

Intern

Motivated individual with strong work ethic and working independently. Strong organizational and team collaboration skills with experience in improving processes.

Contact

Address

Bengaluru, KA 560102

Phone

9108386572

E-mail

marybasilicaf@gmail.com

Skills

Fast Learner

Computer Skills

Sales & Marketing

Decision Making

Problem Solving

MS Excel, Power-point

Digital Marketing

Meeting Coordination

Data Management

Spreadsheet tracking

Work History

|                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|-------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2021-07 - 2021-12 | Intern TS MAHALINGUM AND SONS, Bengaluru <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Collaborated effectively with sales teams, assisting in securing additional business through high-quality work performance.</li><li>Worked closely with management to identify areas for improvement and implement strategies for enhanced efficiency, ultimately contributing to company growth.</li><li>Ensured accuracy of loan documents by thoroughly reviewing all application materials and identifying discrepancies.</li><li>Utilized advanced software tools to efficiently manage large volumes of loan applications, reducing administrative burdens on team members.</li></ul>               |
| 2021-02 - 2021-06 | Intern 7 VERSION, Bengaluru <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Navigated multiple software applications concurrently while handling calls, demonstrating strong multitasking abilities under pressure.</li><li>Established trust with clients through transparent communication about product features, benefits, and limitations.</li><li>Reduced customer complaints by providing clear explanations on products, services, and policies.</li><li>Managed high call volume efficiently, ensuring timely response to incoming calls without compromising quality of service.</li><li>Enhanced communication skills through regular training sessions and workshops offered</li></ul> |

by the organization.

Languages

---

ENGLISH

KANNADA

TAMIL

HINDI

Education

---

2019

High School Diploma

Kala Niketan High School - Bengaluru, India
67%

2020

High School Diploma

Global PU College - Higher Secondary - Bengaluru, India
67%

Expected in 2025

Bachelor of Commerce

New Horizon College - Bengaluru, India
82% - Ongoing

Activities

---

- Carnatic Music
- Dance Form
- Cooking